

ASSIGNMENT FOR CLASS 7

ENGLISH

20

Read the following Passage:-

Arnim Mondesir felt far from home as he sat in a lounge chair in Toronto's Wellesley Hospital kidney dialysis unit and watched his blood flow through a machine. In the ten months he had been in Canada waiting for a transplant, he had been coming to the hospital twice a week for the machine to perform the blood purifying function that his kidney could no longer handle. As usual the treatment took six hours. Arnim began another letter to his four children in Trinidad and as he wrote, his thoughts drifted back to the beginning of the illness that had changed his life.

A sturdy 1.75 metres and 90 kilos, Police Inspector Mondesir had always enjoyed robust health. When a routine medical check-up in 1973 showed him to be suffering from high blood pressure, he didn't worry. "I thought it could be controlled", he said.
